Check and purchase orders should be made payable to "University of Minnesota". CARLA cannot bill your institution.

Each site license entitles the purchaser to use the respective MPLA Assessment purchased (CoRA, CoLA, CoWA, or CoSA) on an unlimited number of computers on one campus (post-secondary institutions) or within one school district (secondary institutions).

Purchasers are responsible for maintaining test security at their site. The manuals outline purpose, intended use and interpretation of the test. Purchasers need to determine appropriate cut scores for their student populations. A procedure for determining cut scores is detailed in the manual. Purchasers are responsible for providing accommodations for special needs students. The MLPA are available for purchase by educational institutions only. Tax ID number must be provided below.

The MLPA were developed with public funds. CARLA is required to report annually to its funding sources and requests the following information:

How many students are likely to take the test this year? CoRA _____ CoLA _____ CoSA _____ CoWA _____

What is your institution's purpose in using this test? Exit requirement
 Other-please explain _____

By default, the COLA, CoRA, and CoWA generate a score report and data file. The CORA also generates a student background report. MLPA CD-ROMs contain instructions for collecting this data at your site. You may wish to consult with your technical support staff and consider your needs for test security. If you have questions, contact CARLA at (612) 626-8600 or by mail at MLPA@umn.edu.
